Fall Classes 2021

In the company of their caregivers, children will fill their class time with . . .

Group Singing
Dancing
Movement
Listening
Instrument Exploration

Children take turns using assorted drums, rhythm and melody instruments, puppets and animal friends. Classroom activities will foster musical skills, personal growth, brain development, listening skills and movement skills. The curriculum is tailored to the needs of each class.

Classes meet once a week for 11 weeks beginning August 12. Classes will not meet during Fall Break.

There is no cost for classes the Fall Semester.
However, class size is limited and everyone must register.

Young Singer Adventures

3 & 4 Year Olds

starting August 12

2-2:45 p.m.

For 3 and 4 year olds with a parent/caregiver. Enjoy a thirty minute musical adventure with Ms. Kathy and then have your caregiver come to class for the remaining 15 minutes. Class time will be action packed with singing, dance, instruments, dramatic play, focused listening, classical, folk, and religious music.

The Young Singer Children's Choir will be a part of this musical experience and the children are encouraged to sing in the worship services and programs of First United Methodist Church.

Community friends and families are welcome to join in the music fun! Classes meet on Thursdays during the fall. A complete schedule will be available at the first class. There is no charge, however class size is limited so please complete the registration form.
